

THE STATE JOURNAL
is the Official State Paper of Wisconsin.
It circulates all over the State. All laws and official publications appear first in its columns.
And its influence is widely felt in every department of advertising.

WISCONSIN STATE JOURNAL.

VOL. 90. NO. 10.

MADISON, WIS., MONDAY AFTERNOON, SEPTEMBER 13, 1897.

LUETGERT JUROR ILL

END OF A ROMANCE

Widow of English Lord Dies of Starve-tion in P. Arkness With Nearly £1.

YELLOW JACK GROWS

CITY NEWS NOTES

The Woman's Auxiliary of the Y. M.
C. A. will hold their regular monthly

STORM, PORT ARTHUR

OBITUARY

Mrs. Alice Whitely Waterman died
this morning at 8 o'clock at the home

OBITUARY.

Mrs. Alice Whitely Waterman died this morning at 8 o'clock, at the home of Major and Mrs. F. W. Oakley, after a long illness following a stroke of paralysis, aged 77 years. Mrs. Waterman was born at Baton Rouge, La., Oct. 18, 1820, when she resided with her parents until about ten years of age, when she moved with her family to New York city. At an early age she was married to Mr. Charles Waterman, of the latter city—was early left a widow and owing to financial vicissitudes in her family obliged to seek her own living.

She passed a number of years in the east in different associations and finally come to Chicago, where she was for eleven years matron of the Briggs home, also served in the same capacity in the Newhall house, Milwaukee. From there she removed to Madison, about 1868, where she occupied the same position in the Vilas house, until it was closed in 1883. Since that time she has made her home with Major and Mrs. Oakley, of this city, having no relatives of her own. Mrs. Waterman is, however, better known in this community by the interest she has taken, and work she has accomplished in the lot set apart for the Confederate soldiers at Forest Hill, having taken the entire care of it during her residence in Madison, spending much time and money in beautifying it. She found it a wilderness and made it blossom as the rose. In this labor of love she has erected a lasting monument to herself, and at her request will be laid to rest with her "boys," as she so fondly called them.

Mrs. Waterman was a gentle woman of the old school, refined in manner and singularly gentle and amiable in disposition. The funeral will occur from the residence of Major Oakley Tuesday 4 p. m.

Sunday afternoon funeral services were held over the remains of the late Charles E. Hoyt at the Masonic temple in this city, the religious rites being conducted by Mr. F. W. Hall, and the Masonic ceremonies by Worshipful Master A. T. Webb. The bearers from different orders of which deceased was a member, were as follows: From the Masons, F. A. Stoltze, Sr., and John Corscot; Odd Fellows, James Carville and Charles Askew; G. A. R., John O'Connell and Charles Gussman. There was a large gathering at the temple. The ceremonies were very impressive.

The funeral of the late Mrs. W. B. Lansing occurred from the residence on Williamson street Sunday afternoon. Many relatives and friends followed the remains to their last resting place.

The funeral over the remains of a baby boy of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Alzheimer, was held at the Church of the Holy Redeemer Sunday afternoon.

MILWAUKEE INDUSTRIAL EX- POSITION,

During which time the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul will and will continue thereafter to give you the finest train service out of Madison. The new 8:10 a. m. and 1:15 p. m. trains consist of parlor cars and the new style high back coaches, and go via the Watertown and Oconomowoc and the famous lake and summer resort region of Wisconsin. These trains also go through without change to Chicago.